

Managing for health and safety

Managing for health and safety

Contents

Introduction	1	Part 3: Delivering effective arrangements	14
How this book can help you	1	Plan	15
How to use the book	1	Determining your policy	17
The Plan, Do, Check, Act approach	2	What should your policy cover?	17
		Who is best placed to write it?	17
Part 1: Core elements of managing for health and safety	4	Consulting and acting on your policy	17
		Planning for implementation	17
Legal duties	5	Why planning is essential	17
Risk profiling	6	Effective planning	17
Health and safety management systems	6	Key actions in effective policy development and planning	18
Documentation	6
Attitudes and behaviours	6	Do	19
Part 2: Are you doing what you need to do?	7	Profiling your organisation's health and safety risks	21
		Assessing the risks	21
Risk profiling	8	What types of risks need to be considered?	21
Leading and managing for health and safety	8	Who should do the assessment?	21
What are you doing?	8	Who could be affected?	21
Additional factors to consider	10	What the law says on assessing risks	21
Competence	10	Assessing the level of risk	22
What are you doing?	11	Small businesses	22
Additional factors to consider	12	Medium-sized businesses or those with greater risks	22
Worker consultation and involvement	12	Large and high-hazard sites	22
What are you doing?	12	Risk controls	22
Additional factors to consider	13	Recording your findings	22

Health surveillance	23	Implementing your plan	37
Key actions in effective risk profiling	23	The key steps	37
Organising for health and safety	24	Documentation	37
Controls within the organisation:		Implementing risk control plans	37
the role of supervisors	24	Key actions in implementing your plan effectively	38
Key actions in supervising for health and safety effectively	25	Check	39
Managing contractors	25	Measuring performance	40
Key actions in managing contractors effectively	26	Monitoring	41
Co-operation	27	How to monitor	41
What is worker involvement?	27	Types of monitoring	41
Co-ordination with contractors	27	Selecting the right measures	41
Ways of involving workers	27	Key actions in measuring performance effectively	42
Contacts with external services	27	Investigating accidents and incidents	43
Emergency procedures	28	Why investigate?	43
Emergency planning and co-operation with the emergency services	28	Reporting incidents	43
Danger areas	28	Key actions in effective accident/incident investigation	44
Key actions in co-operating effectively	29	Act	45
Communication	30	Reviewing performance	46
How size and structure affect communication	30	Key actions in reviewing performance effectively	47
Key actions in communicating effectively	30	Worker consultation and involvement	48
Competence	31	Competence	48
Who should be the competent person?	31	Learning lessons	48
Key actions in competence	31	Common factors when things go wrong	48
Capabilities and training	32	Organisational learning	48
What capabilities do employees need to have?	32	Human factors	48
Where training is particularly important	32	Key actions in learning lessons effectively	49
Training is not a substitute for risk control	32	Part 4: Resources	50
Key actions in capability and effective health and safety training	32	Further information	52
Specialist help	34
When you may need specialist help	34
What the law says on specialist help	34
Additional checks for employing an occupational physician	34
Key actions in managing specialist help effectively	36		